Yom Kippur Ball Set For Saturday Evening

Professional entertainment has been secured, a lavish buffet supper planned and festive decorations devised for the annual Yom Kippur Night Ball to be staged Saturday evening at the Club Alondra in Lawndale by the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women, Chapter 727.

The affair will climax the Jewish High Holidays and many organizations including the Gardena Valley Jewish Center and Temple Menorah are joining in the festivities.

After the lavish buffet dinner there will be music, entertainment and gifts. A well known disc jockey will entertain and has planned an audience participation program.

Planning the affair are: Mmes. Abe Maurer, Hawthorne; Jesse Miller, Los Angeles; Ralph Klein, Torrance; Bernard Yeskin, Torrance; William Brodsky, Torrance; Eli Zelan, Torrance; Mitchell Markow, Hawthorne, and Peter Slap, Inglewood.

VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. James Krueger and daughter Susan have returned from a several days vacation in San Francisco and Sequoia.

Supper Party

On a recent Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Irving Caulkins entertained at a pot luck supper and party at their home, 21604 Halldale Ave.

After the supper cards and badminton were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Caulkins' guests were: Messrs and Mmes Kenneth Lockman, James G. Crawford, Robert Stewart and John Agapito, all of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Long of Harbor City.

BETSY ROSS CLUB

Betsy Ross Club will meet at the home of Rolive Beaver, 2520 El Dorado Ave., on Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 10 a.m. Members will bring own lunch and service. The hosts will serve dessert, tea and coffee.

Sally Speck Leaves for Baker 'U'

Miss Sally Speck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Speck, 1511 Acacia Ave., left Friday evening for Baldwin City, Kan., where she will enter the Baker University. This will be Miss Speck's sophomore year. She attended El Camino College last year.

Sally is majoring in Home Economics and she won the Bank of America Home Economics award in her senior year at the Torrance High School.

Wesley Fellowship of the First Methodist Church, of which Sally is an active member, entertained with an "Adios" party in her honor, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Strom, 1750 Martina Ave.

A red and white color scheme was used in decorating and colorful California napkins were used. Miss Jane Moffatt presented Sally with a beautiful picture of Christ as her going away present.

Attending the affair were: Rev. and Mrs. John L. Taylor, Rev. Donald J. Shelby, Jane Moffatt, Carol Bloye, Norma Rowe, J. Gene Walker, Kent Harding, Carlton Johnson, Tom Sanders and William Hooper.

MRS. JAMES M. BOYLSON
Lovely Bride

James M. Boylson and Bride Will Establish Lomita Home

A southern belle theme was carried out in the wedding gown of Chantilly lace bodice and full ruffled tulle skirt worn by Miss Evelyn Ruth Tiffin when she exchanged wedding promises with James M. Boylson in an 8 o'clock nuptial ceremony Saturday, Sept. 1, in the First Baptist Church of Long Beach.

In keeping with the yellow and white wedding colors, the bride carried a yellow throat orchid atop a white Bible. Her finger tip veil, edged in lace, was worn with a lace tiara.

The new Mrs. Boylson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Franks of Long Beach. She was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage. Her bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Boylson of Lomita.

Officiating at the double ring vows was the Rev. Owen T. Day, before the altar flanked with bouquets of yellow gladioli and white stock and lighted by seven branch candelabra.

At the organ, Phyllis Andrews played a program of bridal music and accompanied Miss Dorothy Molinari who sang "If I Could Tell You, I Love Thee."

The bride's sole attendant was Doris Jean Taber as matriarch of honor who wore a pale green organza gown over taffeta and carried yellow carnations. Roland Startford served as best man and seating the
